

PRESS RELEASE

5th January, 2017

The College hosted the Minister, Human Resource Development, Shri Prakash Javadekar, on 5th January, 2017 for an address on “Digital Financial Literacy Campaign”. The programme was graced by Vice-chancellor, University of Delhi. Senior Officials from MHRD and the University also attended the event.

Addressing over one thousand students of the College in a jam-packed auditorium, the Hon’ble Minister praised the College’s rich history and values. He commended the fact that students hailing from the different regions of the County study under one roof, truly reflecting a mini India.

The students of the College put up a street play depicting the different way by which awareness about Digital Financial Literacy could be spread amongst the people. The Students also gave a presentation of the various efforts that they had put in to propagate Digital Financial Literacy, especially amongst the deprived sections of our society.
