Notice regarding the launch of the Office of International Programs

The College has initiated the streamlining of the attached foreign students studying in various undergraduate programs, A student-managed set-up under the name of the Office of International Programs (OIP) has been made operational. Foreign students will find this office as the one-stop solution for all their concerns and queries. The idea is to facilitate a very comfortable journey of the foreign students and enthruse many such students to join this prestigious institution. All the foreign students admitted in the college may contact the OIP on qip@hinducollege.ac.in.
