

Notice

It has come to the notice of the undersigned that some of the students appearing in the current Open Book Examination March-2022 using Unfair Means through various websites.

We have identified various websites and blogs apart from WhatsApp and Telegram groups which students are using for inappropriate practice of examination. The competent authority of University of Delhi had taken a serious note of it. University of Delhi has also initiated the process of identifying such students through their phone numbers in the groups/websites and preparing UFM Cases against them.

So, it is advised that students must restrain themselves from using such illegal means. All such cases will be considered as UFM cases and such students will be punished as per the University of Delhi rules in this regard.

Dean Examinations